CMRC AGREEMENT

August 6th, 2023. MACHS proudly announced the collaboration with CMRC Saudi Arabia. The collaboration would secure opportunities of academic training and employment. MACHS will continue ceasing upon any opportunity to secure better futures for its students.

FRESHMEN ORIENTATION DAY

August 22nd till 24th, 2023. The Student Affairs department - represented by the advising committee - and the Admission department collaborated in tireless efforts to organize an orientation for the freshmen to the college. It was a whole program that introduced the college's departments, managements, rules and regulations and students' rights and responsibilities. The program concluded by introducing the advisors to their new students and the completion of course registration.

The Public Relations Unit welcomed everyone at MACHS back in their own way on August 28th, 2023. An Ice-cream stand was waiting for students and staff at the lobby of the Admin building. If you missed it this time, try not to do so next time as it might be even hotter!

LEVEL 3 NURSING STUDENTS' ORIENTATION

On August 29th, 2023, the Academic Advising committee of the Nursing department organized an orientation program for Level 3 Nursing students. The major objectives were to make the students aware of the academic aspects of the courses, the rules and regulations, and the utilization of a variety of services that MACHS provides. The students were also familiarized with the courses, degree audit, academic calendar, communication pathways, and policies related to exams, attendance, and remedial. Additionally, the students were briefed about the importance of community services since it is of the mission of the college and one of the criteria for Dean's honor. Special thanks to Dr. Eman Hassan, Nursing HoD, and her team for organizing this informative day.

MONTHLY EMPLOYEE TEA TIME

On August 29th, 2023, the HR team organized a gathering time at 3:00 pm. In fact, it has been a fine gesture by the HR department through the past year to gather the employees for a teatime every last Tuesday of the month. It served as a great opportunity for the staff to break the routine, get to know each other and enjoy refreshments and snacks. Where else can we find such a team!

DEAN'S HONOR LIST

August 29th, 2023. MACHS proudly announced the Dean's Honor List in appreciation of their efforts throughout the academic year 2022/2023. The list included MACHS brightest students who performed the highest academic standards, and participated in voluntary services inside and outside MACHS. Let us all cheer them up and encourage their colleagues to follow them.

The image displays four posters for the Dean's Honor List 2023, arranged in a 2x2 grid. Each poster features the MACHS logo and name in Arabic and English at the top. The top two posters are for the Nursing department, and the bottom two are for the Pharmacy department. Each poster lists the names of the honor list members in a dark-colored box with a white background. The posters are set against a light, patterned background.
